de la vie en japonais

Il n'est pas facile d'être japonais. On ne peut pas aller à l'école, travailler, se marier, avoir des enfants, etc., sans connaître le japonais. C'est pourquoi, pour ceux qui veulent vivre en japonais, il est important d'apprendre la langue. C'est ce que fait le professeur de japonais, M. T. K. Lee, à l'école de japonais de la ville de New York. Il leur apprend à lire, à écrire, à parler et à comprendre la langue. C'est une tâche difficile, mais il leur donne tout son soutien et leur aide à surmonter les difficultés. C'est ainsi qu'ils peuvent vivre en japonais et profiter de la culture japonaise.

The soldiers' discontent is not just about the war itself, but also about the way it is being conducted. Some soldiers have expressed their dissatisfaction with the way the war is being conducted, and some have even expressed their doubts about the war's purpose and whether it is worth the cost.

NPA executes man wanted for rape

By Chito A. Fuentes
PDI Vicious Bureau

TAGBILARAN CITY—The New People's Army (NPA) announced that it executed the alleged public enemy no. 1 of Sevilla town in Bohol.

In a statement sent by e-mail to the Philippine National Democratic Front (NDF) Central Visayas spokesperson Rio de la Murrana said elements of the NPA's Chocolate Hills Command executed Victor Cutin, 24, last Dec. 3.

De la Murrana said Cutin was responsible for the abduction and rape of a 16-year-old girl on Aug. 12 and the shooting of Sevilla Councilor Eleazar Diga on Nov. 6.

The NDF spokesperson said Cutin was arrested by NPA fighters on Nov. 15 and was "put on trial" before he was found guilty by a nine-man jury of the "people's court."

Foucesmen in Sevilla recovered Cutin's body in Barangay Bunbon, Loboc town on Saturday morning.

Cutin allegedly abducted at knife point the teenager in the presence of her friends at about 9 p.m. last Aug. 12 in Barangay Loco-Loco, Sevilla.

He brought the victim in a forested area in Sitio Ka-ojuy, Barangay Villa Aurora in neighboring Bilar town and raped her twice.

The victim was able to escape and went home the next day and was brought by Villa Aurora residents to the Bilar police where Sevilla police men ferried her.

Last Aug. 18, the victim filed charges of forcible abduction and rape at the office of the provincial prosecutor against Cutin who managed to elude a manhunt conducted by the police and Army soldiers.

De la Murrana said that on Oct. 1, the NPA started conducting consultations with its local organizations in several barangays in Sevilla to address the "climate of fear" created in the area by the failure of government troops to arrest Cutin.

He said the rape victim signed a sworn affidavit before a rebel representative on Nov. 8 declaring her intention to pursue the abduction and rape charges against Cutin.

On Nov. 9, Cutin tried to kill Diga in his house but he missed. The assassination failed as his second shot hit the councilor only in the left hand after his first shot missed.

Cutin vented his ire on a stray carabao, which he stabbed dead as he fled after shooting the councilor.

De la Murrana said Cutin himself admitted that Engel, who chairs the Sevilla council peace and order committee, had "persecuted" him for his suspected involvement in robbery.

The rebels have also announced they were forming a court to try criminal charges against government officials being held responsible for the deaths brought by flooding and landslides as a result of Typhoon "Wanda."

Tubal ligation angers archbishop

DAWUPAN CITY—Lugayan-Dagupan Archbishop Oscar Cruz has rebuked local officials who, he said, enticed women to "mutilate their bodies" by giving them food if they undergo tubal ligation, a family planning procedure.

Cruz was reacting to reports about two Pangasinan mayors who asked the Voluntary Sterilization Mission Team (VSMT) of the provincial government to conduct tubal ligation among women who wanted to undergo the procedure in their towns.

San Manuel Mayor Salvador Perez gave each of the 29 women in his town a half sack of rice and a bag of groceries. He also promised to give them goats as part of his livelihood program for the town's poor.

Alangin Mayor Guillermo Pao asked the VSMT to conduct tubal ligation among women in his town.

But their actions caught the ire of Cruz, a former president of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines.

"For these officials, the poor have still to be exploited, shamed, and degraded," he said in a statement.

They entice (the women) to mutilate their bodies. They are told they have no right to multiply. They are offered with a bag of food if they can then undergo," Cruz said.

He lamented that some people are turning desperate to lessen population. He said these people consider human birth "a big curse" and they look at babies "with great disgust."

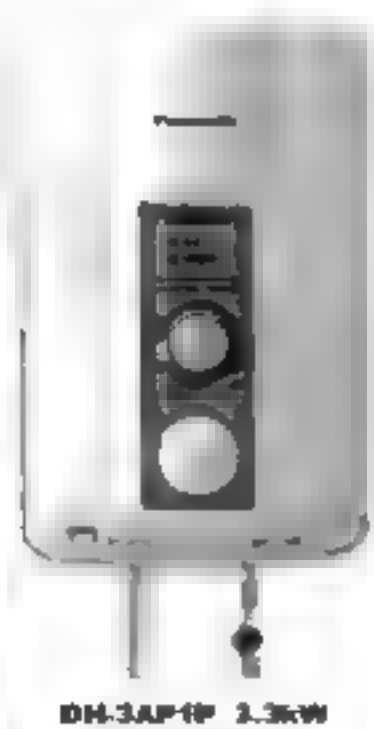

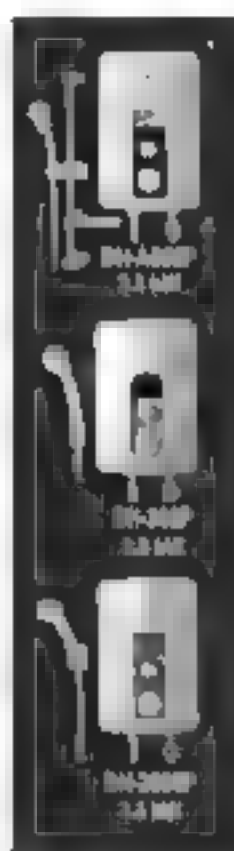

Instead of the poor being patiently and effectively taught about responsible parenthood (these officials take parenthood away from them instead of education they are led to mutilation—shamefully, cruelly, irreversibly," he said.

"One can simply wonder where these individuals would be if their own mothers or fathers cut off the their tubes that would bring them into the world. If their fathers and mothers were still alive, would they dream for distant children?"
